The Lost place

Instruction of the piece:

The length of the piece is between 6-10 mint. You have to decide how long you will play the piece because the Tape should be the same length
This piece is three lines of graphics, each line for one or two musicians and with a tape.

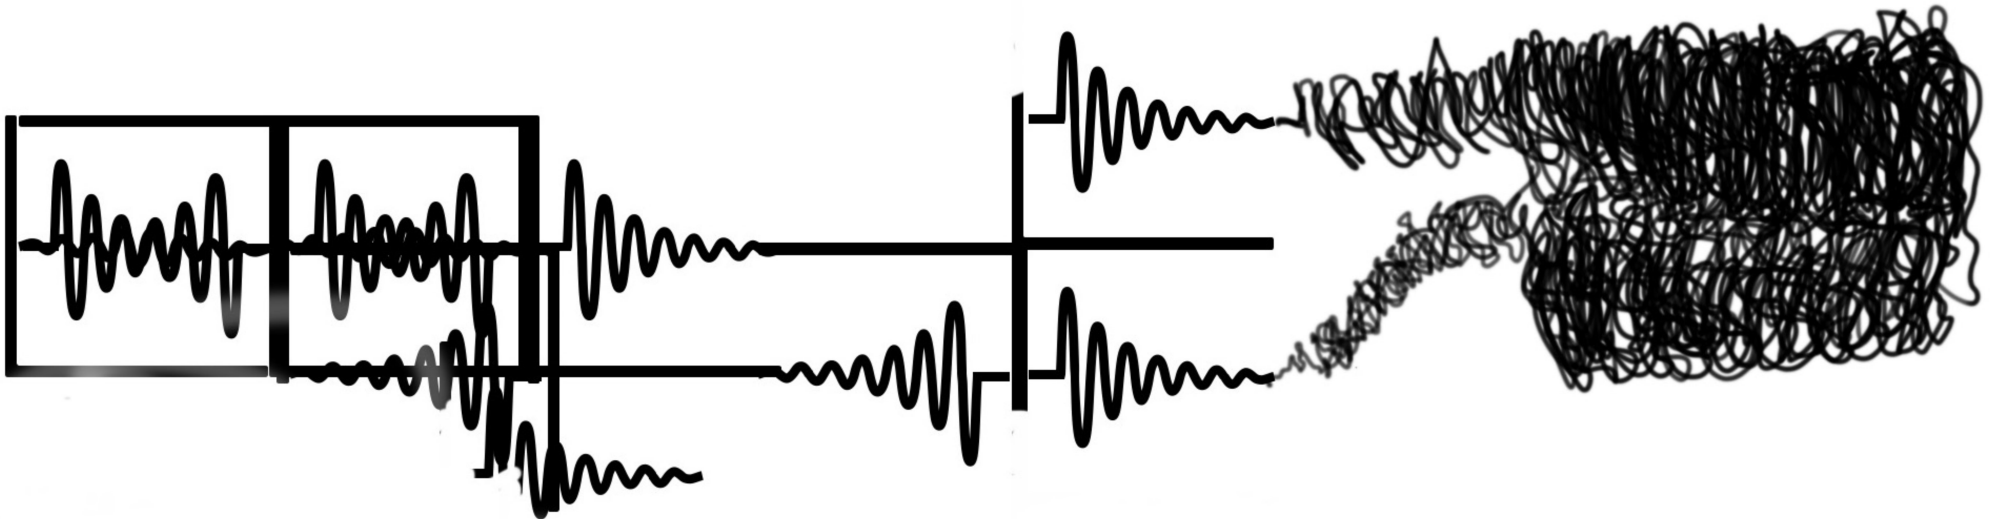

1. The first line is a sustained long and short ton and repeated as a graphic showing and be lost in your repetition and sustainability.
2. The second line is noise, and unbalanced character, as the graphic showed and repeated until you are lost in your repetition of noise.
3. The third line is a mix of words which can be voiced, and the graphic can be played. Be lost in the repetition of voicing words or Playing.
4. The tape should be recorded by one of the musicians who say the words in the last line and repeat them and be lost in your repetition; the tape starts with the piece start and ends at the same time as the musician.

Each line should gradually repeat but, in the end, should be frequently repeated until all come to gather through the intensity of the sound and make three different ends or lost.
